

PRESS RELEASE

Date: December 28, 2007
Contact: Larry J. Cooper, CFO
677-5202
or
Scott Danner, COO
852-7442

UIC Hires Tax Manager

(Barrow, AK) –Ukpeaġvik Iñupiat Corporation, the ANCSA Village Corporation for Barrow, Alaska is pleased to announce the hiring of its new Tax Manager, Tim Marx, effective today.

As Tax Manager, Marx will be located in the UIC Anchorage Finance & Accounting office. He will direct UIC's overall tax management program including tax strategy, planning, forecasting, accounting and compliance.

"Tim's position is a new one for UIC" said CFO Larry Cooper, "and his experience and knowledge will be valuable to the UIC team as we manage our ongoing growth through 36 operating units across 30 states and several overseas operations."

Marx is a CPA with 18 years experience in auditing and tax management, preparation, and consulting including extensive knowledge regarding tax provisions of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act and its amendments. He graduated from the University of Alaska Anchorage with a BBA in Accounting and worked for several local accounting firms before joining Mikunda, Cottrell & Co., Inc. in January of 2002 as Tax Manager.

Incorporated in 1973 as an ANCSA Village Corporation, Ukpeaġvik Iñupiat Corporation is a dynamic $300 million revenue business headquartered in Barrow, Alaska with current operations in the construction, engineering, marine transportation, insurance, real estate, government contracting, information technology, manufacturing, logistics, and oilfield services industries throughout Alaska and the United States.